Elk Grove Village Public Library trustees named Queen of the Rosary kindergarten teacher Mary Vitale to fill a vacancy on the library board at their Monday, March 14 meeting.

Six applied to fill the vacancy left when longtime library Trustee Gil Schumm resigned last month, all of whom were interviewed in Monday's executive session meeting of the library board, after which trustees voted to name Vitale in open session.

Library Director Debora Nelson said, "All the candidates were excellent."

She said Vitale grew up in Elk Grove Village going to the library and participated in the library's summer reading program as a kid. Nelson said Vitale has a strong background in community service, including working for decades as a bereavement facilitator at Arlington Heights' Willow House.

Elk Grove Village officials said Mayor Johnson would conduct the swearing-in ceremony at the Tuesday, April 5 library board meeting.
